They brought us justice and blessing from our terrible tragedy.

During the most devastating time of my life they were there to guide and advise and help ensure a necessary and positive outcome for my family.

At Feldman Shepherd, securing justice isn’t just about winning verdicts. We drive real change that saves lives. Our cases have led to:

- National recalls of unstable children’s dressers and unsafe infant carriers
- Safer propane filling procedures to prevent explosions
- Mandated newborn screenings for jaundice to ensure timely treatment
- Recalls of fire-prone ovens and ranges with faulty knobs
- Stronger supervision for medical residents in academic hospitals
- Increased awareness of heat risks for student-athletes, especially those with sickle cell trait
- Enhanced background checks for medical professionals and youth caretakers

- Safer highways for the traveling public
